

Economics Seminar

Moderated by Michael Keatinge (Director, NWWRAC)

Thursday, 28th October, 2010
10:00 – 16:00

Erin Room, Dublin Castle,
Dublin, Ireland

AGENDA

10:00 – 10:30 Introduction and overview (Michael Keatinge, Fisheries Development Manager of BIM and Director of the NWWRAC)

10:30 - 11:00 An EU perspective (John Anderson, Joint Research Centre)

COFFEE

11:30 – 12:00 An industry perspective (Aukje Coers, Executive Secretary, Pelagic RAC) – The objectives and outcomes of the Pelagic RAC economics group

12:00 – 12:30 An NGO perspective (Brendan Price, Irish Seal Sanctuary) - The identification of opportunities that exist for redeployment, upskilling and enhancement of unemployed fishermen in coastal communities.

12:30 – 13:00 Open Discussion

LUNCH

14:00 - 15:30 Economics in action (Philip Rogers; Economist: Erinshore Economics Limited)

- The Means of Finding the Socio-Economic Effect of Changes in Fisheries;
- How Socio-Economic Effects appear in the Economy;

COFFEE

- Examples: A single business, A country's fleet, A country's fishing industry.

15:30 – 15:50 Open Discussion

15:50 – 16:00 Closing remarks: Michael Keatinge