SECOND CHANNEL SCALLOP MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

10 – 12TH FEBRUARY 2015, PORT EN BESSIN, FRANCE

A blurred photograph of a group of people at a workshop. The image is out of focus, showing indistinct shapes and colors of people and objects. Overlaid on the top left of the image is the French text: "La mer rapproche les gens qu'elle sépare. La coquille St Jacques les réunit !". In the bottom right corner of the image, there is English text: "Scallop Workshop Normandy, February 2015".

Outputs converged on three key themes:

1. leadership and governance
 2. science and data
 3. management measures
- Decorative wavy lines at the bottom of the slide, consisting of a dark blue wave on top of a green wave.

Outputs:

- Designing regional protocols around 'science & data'
 - Harmonisation without homogenisation
 - Set up a 'management WG'
 - Convene a scallop focus group
 - UK industry undertakes selectivity trial of the French specification dredges.

“we can build on the progress made in Brixham and can now focus on achieving a sustainable and profitable industry in the future.”

Jim Portus
Chair, SWFPO

“we cannot define a long-term management plan without a shared [approach]. There is still a lot of work to do, but with the will, we can achieve anything. A scallop management group must be created.”

Daniel Lefevre
Chair, Channel WG3

What happens next?

- Present report to NWWAC ✓
- Host small meeting ✓
- Convene scallop focus group ?
- Apply for funding ?
- Scope possible project ?
